

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

SUSTAINABILITY AND THE LAW

INTERDISCIPLINARY SYMPOSIUM

FRIDAY 21ST NOVEMBER 2025, H 9 - 17
VIA ZAMBONI 22, PALAZZO MALVEZZI, SALA ARMI

FEATURED SPEAKERS

RICCARDO GHETTI

Introduction. An institutional approach to interdisciplinary legal research

CARLA AVOLIO

Environmental sustainability goals and creditors' interests: striking the right balance in liquidation proceedings

NICOLÒ CEVOLANI

«The revery alone will do, if bees are few»: sustainability agreements in the food chain

LUDOVICA CHIUSSI CURZI

Climate change and environmental disputes at the European Court of Human Rights

MICHELE CORGATELLI

Institutional investors stewardship: current developments and future prospects

DAVIDE DONATI

Sustainable mining: challenge, opportunity, or just an oxymoron?

GIAN MARIA FARNELLI

Sustainability and climate change in international jurisprudence

RICCARDO GHETTI

Corporate law, sustainability and the omnibus directive: what now?

SERGIO GILOTTA

Sustainability and corporate purpose: the limits of corporate 'welfarism'

ENRICO GUARNIERI

Sustainable administrative procedures and the mantra of simplification

YLENIA GUERRA

The people in their intertemporal dimension. A theory of future generations as a political element of constitutional evolution

DAMIGELA HOXHA

Embodied inequalities: rethinking disability and social sustainability in historical perspective

FEDERICO LAUS

Digital healthcare and sustainable governance: between innovation, equity and accountability

DAVIDE MARIA LOCATELLO

Sustainable real property? Opportunities and constraints in Italian estate law

LUCA ORCIANI

ESG selective disclosure to shareholders: the prism of private ordering

ELENA ORRÙ

Sustainability and legal challenges in mobility as a service (MAAS)

MATILDE RATTI

AI, privacy and sustainability

ANNA ROTA

Work sustainability and active ageing

EDGARDO RICCIARDIELLO

Sustainability and going concern: new issues and perspectives

ILARIA SAMORÉ

Integral ecology and synodality. National episcopal conferences as a laboratory for a new magisterium

ALVISE SCHIAVON

Intergenerational sustainability: reflections from Roman legal sources

SUSANNA VILLANI

EU trade agreements and sustainable development: legal provisions at a glance

Please register at SustainabilityAndTheLaw@gmail.com